Fashioned as a social network, WonderList is a property-based platform that enables realtors to upload, search or promote their listings and it also helps them perform co-broking, and co-selling on every single listing.

It enables them to conduct negotiations and to create a digitalised record right through the app. Clients on the other hand get to choose the realtor they'd like to deal with and provide feedback on each one of them.

According to TechInAsia, they raised US$1M.
